

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

LORENZO HADLEY,

Plaintiff,

v.

S. MENDES, et al.,

Defendants.

Case No. 1:22-cv-00093-SKO (PC)

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE WHY
ACTION SHOULD NOT BE DISMISSED
FOR FAILURE TO OBEY COURT
ORDERS

21-DAY DEADLINE

Plaintiff Lorenzo Hadley is a state prisoner proceeding pro se and in forma pauperis in this civil rights action brought pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

I. INTRODUCTION

On February 17, 2023, the Court issued its First Screening Order. (Doc. 9.) The Court determined Plaintiff's complaint failed to state a claim upon which relief could be granted. (Id. at 4-5.) The Court directed Plaintiff to file a first amended complaint curing the deficiencies identified in the order, or to file a notice of voluntary dismissal. (Id. at 5.) Plaintiff was to do so within 21 days of service of the order. (Id.)

Although 21 days have now passed without a response from Plaintiff, the Court notes a March 14, 2023, docket entry reflects Plaintiff did not receive the first screening order because it was returned by the United States Postal Service marked "Undeliverable, Not Deliverable as Addressed." (Docket Entry dated 3/14/23.)

II. DISCUSSION AND ORDER

The Local Rules, corresponding with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11, provide, “[f]ailure of counsel or of a party to comply with . . . any order of the Court may be grounds for the imposition by the Court of any and all sanctions . . . within the inherent power of the Court.” Local Rule 110. “District courts have inherent power to control their dockets” and, in exercising that power, may impose sanctions, including dismissal of an action. Thompson v. Housing Auth., City of Los Angeles, 782 F.2d 829, 831 (9th Cir. 1986). A court may dismiss an action based on a party’s failure to prosecute an action, obey a court order, or comply with local rules. See, e.g., Ferdik v. Bonzelet, 963 F.2d 1258, 1260-61 (9th Cir. 1992) (dismissal for failure to comply with a court order to amend a complaint); Malone v. U.S. Postal Service, 833 F.2d 128, 130-31 (9th Cir. 1987) (dismissal for failure to comply with a court order); Henderson v. Duncan, 779 F.2d 1421, 1424 (9th Cir. 1986) (dismissal for failure to prosecute and to comply with local rules).

Local Rule 182(f) provides that a “pro se party is under a continuing duty to notify the Clerk and all other parties of any change of address Absent such notice, service of documents at the prior address of the ... pro se party shall be fully effective.”

Here, Plaintiff has failed to obey the Court’s February 17, 2023 screening order requiring Plaintiff to file either a first amended complaint or a notice of voluntary dismissal within 21 days of service of that order. Plaintiff has also failed to keep the Court apprised of his current address.¹

Accordingly, the Court ORDERS Plaintiff to show cause in writing, within 21 days of the date of service of this order, why this action should not be dismissed for his failure to keep the Court apprised of his current address and for his failure to comply with the Court’s order of February 17, 2023. Alternatively, within that same time, Plaintiff may file either a first amended complaint or a notice of voluntary dismissal and a Notice of Change of Address.
